

Attleboro Supplementary Regulations

November 18, 1985	Membership	An employee who is employed at least twenty (20) hours per week on a permanent basis shall become a member of the system. (AMENDED 4/7/99).
November 18, 1985	Membership	Once a temporary or provisional employee has completed six (6) months of service he/she shall join the system. Provisional police and firefighters shall become members upon employment. (AMENDED 4/7/99).
November 18, 1985	Membership	CETA employees shall become members of the system if they later become employed by the city. They will be allowed to make payment toward creditable service for the time worked under CETA.
November 18, 1985	Membership	Any person hired on a contractual basis shall not be eligible to become a member of the system.
November 18, 1985	Membership	Non-compensated appointed officials - boards and commissions, etc. are not eligible for membership in the retirement system.
November 18, 1985	Creditable Service	City solicitor and assistant city solicitor shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every two (2) years of service rendered in such capacity. (Amended by supplementary rule approved April 12, 1988).
November 18, 1985	Creditable Service	School physicians and assistant school physicians shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every two (2) years of service rendered in such capacity. (Amended by supplementary rule approved April 12, 1988).
November 18, 1985	Creditable Service	School dentist and assistant school dentist shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every two (2) years of service rendered in such capacity. (Amended by supplementary rule approved April 12, 1988).
November 18, 1985	Creditable Service	Health officer shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every two (2) years of service rendered in that position. (Amended by supplementary rule approved April 12, 1988).
November 18, 1985	Creditable Service	Board members and commissions who receive compensation and wish to join the system shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every three (3) years of service rendered in such capacity.
November 18, 1985	Creditable Service	Credit for part-time, provisional, temporary, temporary provisional, seasonal or intermittent employment and or service shall be computed to credit the member for that proportion of a normal year which the number of days actually worked during that year bears to the normal working year for the department under which the employee serves. (AMENDED 4/7/99).

Attleboro Supplementary Regulations

November 18, 1985	Creditable Service	Credit for part-time salaried employees shall be prorated on the basis of the proportion which the actual salary received bears to what the salary would be for the same position if it were full time.
April 12, 1988	Creditable Service	City solicitor and assistant city solicitor shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every two (2) years of service rendered in such capacity. If employed in a full time capacity, the person shall receive a full year of creditable service for each year employed as full time.
April 12, 1988	Creditable Service	School physicians and assistant school physicians shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every two (2) years of service rendered in such capacity. If employed in a full time capacity, the person shall receive a full year of creditable service for each year employed as full time.
April 12, 1988	Creditable Service	School dentist and assistant school dentist shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every two (2) years of service rendered in such capacity. If employed in a full time capacity, the person shall receive a full year of creditable service for each year employed as full time.
April 12, 1988	Creditable Service	Health officer shall receive one (1) year of creditable service for every two (2) years of service rendered in that position. If employed in a full time capacity, the person shall receive a full year of creditable service for each year employed as full time.
January 5, 1990	Election Rules	45 day notice period and a 30 day nomination period for Board's 1990 election approved.
April 7, 1999	Membership	Permanent Part-time Employees An employee who is employed at least twenty (20) hours per week on a permanent basis, shall become a member of the system.
April 7, 1999	Membership	Temporary or Provisional Employees Shall become members* of the system upon the date of employment if they work twenty (20) hours or more. If at the end of their probationary period they are terminated, their deductions shall be refunded upon request. *Membership begins on the date that regular compensation commences for the position which you are employed.
April 7, 1999	Creditable Service	Credit for Part-time Employees Credit for part-time, seasonal or intermittent employment and/or service shall be computed to credit the member for that proportion of a normal year which the number of days actually worked during that year bears to the normal working year for the department under which the employee serves. The ratio of creditable service will be determined at the time of buyback calculating the percentage from the hours being worked in relationship to the hours worked during the period of service to be purchased.

Attleboro Supplementary Regulations

April 7, 1999	Membership/Creditable Service	Transfers In The Attleboro Retirement System will not accept a transfer from another system on behalf of an employee who does not meet the minimum requirement of twenty (20) hours per week for membership. Once the employee becomes eligible to be a member of the Attleboro system, a transfer from another system will be accepted and the employee will be credited with the transferred service.
April 7, 1999	Membership/Creditable Service	Full-time Employees Who Become Part-time Employees An employee who is employed full-time and later becomes part-time will continue membership in the system even if the part-time hours worked fall below the minimum requirement of twenty (20) hours per week. Credit for part-time service will be pro-rated by taking the actual number of hours worked and dividing by the number of hours which constitute full-time status for the position held.